Accurate war news in the Bonanza

WALTER C. LAMB ISSUES STATEMENT

Walter C. Lamb has issued a circular addressed to the press of Nevada setting forth his platform as follows:

I was prompted to enter this campaign feeling deeply that the activities of Congressman Roberts are so inconsistent with the record of Nevada for loyalty and patriotism, that unless he makes a more satisfactory explanation to his constituents than has thus far appeared, his record, far from entitling him to promotion to the United States senate, should cause his unconditional retirement by the people of Nevada.

The espousal of this cause by me represents a serious personal sacrifice, which I cheerfully make in the interest of vindicating the reputation of Nevada as the battle-born state that still seriously means and lives its motto, "All for our Country."

I was born and raised in Nevada, and since boyhood have been thrilled by its proud record of patriotic achievement in supporting President Lincoln and the union in the great civil war. Congressman Roberts' record, thus far wholly unexplained, in voting for the infamous McLemore resolution, then against the declaration of war, and after we had entered the war, against important appropriation bills and the conscription bill, cannot but result in impugning Nevada's standing for loyalty in the view of the other patri-

THREE SECOND DRAFT MEN GO TO RENO

Three volunteers from the second draft will entrain for Reno next Thursday to take the course of mechanical training in the University of Nevada at the expense of the government. The same requirement that applied to the previous batch of recruits for the Nevada station applies to these boys who must have at least a grammar school education. The names selected by L. E. Glass, clerk of the exemption board, are William Carroll, George Raycraft and Arlin Neilson.

MEN OF FORTY MAY ENTER U. S. NAVY

Scores of patriotic Americans who have offered their services to the U. S. naval reserve force, and who have been rejected for the sole reason that they were over thirty-five years of age, will be greatly cheered by the knowledge that a telegram received by Captain Robt. L. Russell, U. S. N., commandant of the twelfth naval district, announces that the maximum age for first enlistment in all ratings now open in the naval reserve force has been raised from thirty-five years to forty years, excepting enlistments as hospital apprentice first or second class, for which ratings the maximum ages are now established at twenty-seven years and twenty-five years, respectively.

It is anticipated that raising the age barrier will result in rallying hundreds of men to the colors who have previously been denied service simply because they were over the age limit.

WOULD TAKE MANY MEN FROM NEVADA

Word has reached Adjutant General Sullivan from Provost Marshal General Crowder to prepare for the organization of draft machinery to facilitate the registration of men between the ages of 18 and 21 and 31 and 45. Adjutant General Sullivan stated that authorities anticipate the registration of approximately 16,000 men in Nevada between the above ages.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
I want the public of Tonopah to know that I am no dope fiend, for there is not a person living who is more opposed to the use of narcotics. Some persons have accused me ever since I have been in Tonopah and they might, with as much justice, accuse me of murder. I will not endure this disgrace any longer. I have been in ill health for many years and the worrying aggravates my condition. The slander is circulated by women who are given to spending their time playing cards and carousing and whom I refused to join.

(Signed) MRS. LAURA ANDERSON.

otic states of the union.

The people of our state have exceeded the record of all other states in liberty bond subscriptions, war stamps purchases, Red Cross donation enlistments of our boys to fight for their country, etc. These facts, however, are not widely known outside of Nevada, whereas the record of Congressman Roberts is being published broadcast throughout the union and is naturally the basis on which the people of other states estimate the character of Nevada for loyalty and patriotism, or the lack of both.

Let Congressman Roberts return to Nevada and explain his conduct, or let all loyal Nevadans do their share to oust him as he deserves. My purpose is to be absolutely just to the congressman, but I sincerely feel that the press of the state should render the service of calling the attention of the people to his record. I likewise believe that he is clearly entitled to publicity of such defense as he may have to make.

The newspapers of Nevada deserve great credit for their unselfish efforts in bringing home to our people the terrible meaning of the war and the importance of the coming election on its victorious conclusion. Realizing the vital significance of the coming primary election, I am confident that the deep feeling of patriotism that animates the citizens of Nevada will prompt them to register without fail before August 13th.

WORK TO BE RESUMED MONDAY BY RED CROSS

The quota of surgical dressings for Nye county has been received by the Red Cross and work will be begun in that department on Monday. Fifteen hundred 12x24-inch absorbent pads is the amount required. A good supply of material is on hand and if workers come forward in sufficient numbers there will be no difficulty in getting out the work.

Mrs. Kinlock, who is in charge of the surgical dressings department, wishes to especially urge upon the women of the Red Cross the urgent necessity of getting out these pads on time. These dressings are used in amputations and they will prove of vital importance to our boys now fighting so gloriously on the western front.

MOOSE FAVOR GIVING NEVADA A GOOD SHOW

Tonopah Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, has gone on record in favor of securing some of the government appropriations for this section to enable the citizens to increase their contributions to the war activities. Last night the lodge adopted a long preamble and a resolution bearing on the subject and reading as follows:

Resolved, That Tonopah Lodge, No. 974, L. O. O. M., goes upon record demanding our representatives at Washington, D. C., to take up with the president of the United States the matter of future patronage in the way of creation of cantonment camps, and aviation fields, to let war contracts with established home industries, the expenditure of money to harness our natural water powers that heat energy from coal and oil might be conserved, the establishment of factories for the manufacture of necessities of war, and any other consideration that might tend to replenish Nevada in a financial way that will permit her to fulfill her patriotic duties in the purchase of government securities when called upon. That without such consideration the time is not far distant when our commonwealth will be without funds with which to maintain its standing because of a constant financial drain without a substantial source of revenue to meet such condition.

FINE BEAD WORK IS SECURED AT CARSON

Dr. and Mrs. Edward H. Angle, of Pasadena, Cal., who are spending a few days in this city, have secured the finest beaded ceremonial sash ever produced by a Washoe Indian squaw. The maker is known as "Seess" and is the second best basket weaver in the Washoe tribe. "Seess" now wears a service button, as her only son, Hugh Bryan, is at Fort Riley, having enlisted some time ago. He expects to go over with the boys in a short time—Carson News.

HANGED FOR MURDER
(By Associated Press)
SAN QUENTIN, Aug. 9.—Fred Miller, a negro, was hanged in the penitentiary for the murder of a 16-year-old Mexican girl in Ventura county.

THOUSANDS TURN OUT TO CELEBRATE

It did not take long last evening to gather over 2000 people on Main street. With the first shriek of the whistles followed by a few taps on the fire bells, everybody began getting into outer garments and hastening down to the town center where they knew there would be doings of some sort. And there were. For over thirty minutes the usual crowd drifted up and down Main street with the full brass band of the Musicians' Union and the Tonopah Drum corps. The parade did not need any direction. The Nye County Council of Defense furnished red fire which stimulated the paraders to a high pitch of enthusiasm which rose in a chorus as though this was the first celebration of the kind pulled off in the camp. After exhausting their exuberance in singing, shouting and applauding every one and everything the crowd was halted at the junction of Main and Brougher avenue where Judge William Forman was announced as the speaker.

Mr. Forman dwelt on the manifestation of patriotism and the men who always get behind the movement and added that if only a handful of such men were over on the west front there would be no show for the enemy. Mr. Forman then took up the urgent demand for money and the necessity for every citizen doing his share toward furnishing the sinews of war by subscribing his utmost. Incidentally, the speaker said, that he had two sons in the army whom he would rather see in an unmarked grave in No Man's Land than to have them branded as slackers afraid to do their duty to their country.

The band played the national anthem and the crowd dispersed.

NINE YEAR OLD BOY DIES FROM APPENDICITIS

Rudolph Cuddeback, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cuddeback, died this morning from the effects of appendicitis for which he was taken to the Mine Operators' hospital last Saturday night. As soon as the lad was received it was seen that his case was a serious one and the operation confirmed this diagnosis as it was found that the sack had exploded and the septic matter disseminated through the system. The case was hopeless from the beginning and the patient passed away at 8 o'clock this morning.

The father was employed at the Louisiana Con. Mining company property at Tybo and, without knowing the gravity of the case both father and mother came in with the child Saturday night, arriving at 9 o'clock when it was found that the only hope was in performing an operation immediately.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and the interment will be in the local cemetery. Rev. H. L. Graftious will officiate at the obsequies.

I loan you a watch to carry while I repair your own. I am the finest watchmaker who ever came to Tonopah. Emilie Merman at Robert's Grocery store. adv. M137

CLEOPATRA COMING TO THE AIRDOME

Theda Bara's presentation of Cleopatra's robes worth a king's ransom will be seen here at the Airdome on the night of Tuesday, August 13th. The performance will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

A riot of gorgeousness and Egyptian splendor that outlives the time of the real Cleopatra is the predominant feature of the William Fox Theda Bara superpicture, "Cleopatra," in which Miss Theda Bara, world-famed screen star, plays the title role of the enchanting siren of the Nile.

The costumes worn by Miss Bara throughout this spectacle are wondrous creations. No expense was spared by William Fox to make this photodrama the greatest ever produced and thrown upon a screen. The entire world was combed by his assistants to embody in this masterpiece every accurate historical detail which history describes as having graced the court of the famous Cleopatra. Detail, the keynote to an artistic production, has been the point uppermost in the minds of everyone having anything to do with the film.

In addition to the decorative creations embracing the various periods in which Cleopatra reigned, there have been used more than 10,000 people to add color and life to the photodrama. These periods embrace the Roman and Egyptian, giving the director an opportunity to picture the various barbaric types prevalent in those times.

In the interior tent scene more than $50,000 worth of decorations were used to give it the barbaric appearance of splendor accredited to the time of the great siren of the Nile. There were used alone, in this wonderful set, two rugs valued at $30,000. In addition, the various tapestries, silks and furniture amounted to more than $20,000. So valuable were the furnishings, that it was necessary for the Fox Film corporation to insure every article contained therein against fire and theft during the entire time this set was being used.

Never before in the history of photodramatic production has there ever been seen such a lavish and costly display of decorations.

BEATEN BY BASQUES

A. Fordin, assistant superintendent of the sheep department of the Miller & Lux ranch was attacked early Thursday morning on the streets of Winnemucca by a band of seven or eight basques and beaten almost insensible. It is known that a feud existed between the men for a long while. No arrests have been made.

RED CROSS NOTICE

Payments of pledges to second war fund, American Red Cross, are to be made locally and not to Mr. McAdoo's office, national headquarters, nor the division office. Payments locally may be made to either of the banks, to Mrs. Mullen, cashier, or at the office of council of defense. Much confusion and additional work has been caused by remittances being made direct to national headquarters.

CARSON CITY SAYS PLENTY OF PINE NUTS THIS YEAR

Parties who have been in the Pine nut hills all report an extra heavy crop of pine nuts this year. The trees are loaded with cones and seem to be ripening earlier than usual.

For years the Indians have declared that "no pinenuts, no winter." The Carson News says last season the crop was a failure as were the snowstorms. It is hoped that Mr. Indian has the right sign on the weather this fall.
